

Carriage House

A one and one-half stories tall carriage house.

A one and one-half stories tall carriage house.

A one and one-half stories tall carriage house.

*A one and one-half story carriage house with an entrance from the alley.**

*The height of a carriage house as compared to a typical garage.**

*A large carriage house with a projecting balcony.**

**Example from outside of Flagstaff*

Single-Family Detached

A single-family house with a full-front porch.

A single-family house with shade providing trees.

A single-family house with a small stoop.

A single-family house with an integral sunroom.

A single-family house showcasing a multitude of materials.

A single-family house with a two-bay porch.

Duplex

A duplex with stoops.

A duplex with a shared porch.

A duplex that resembles a large-single family house.

Duplexes can be designed within the characteristics of many architectural styles.

A duplex with private stoops.

A duplex with a stone facade.

Fourplex/Sixplex

A fourplex with a single entrance.

A sixplex with a formal front entrance as well as side entrances.

A fourplex with multiple entrances from of a shared porch.

A sixplex with multiple entry stoops.*

A sixplex that resembles a very large single family house.*

A sixplex with a single entrance.*

*Example from outside of Flagstaff

Bungalow Court

Bungalow Courts are often layed out on a symmetric plan.*

The public address of a bungalow court.*

A bungalow court can read as a small village of homes.*

A bungalow court with a variety of architectural styles.*

Units within a bungalow court that are united by a common architectural style.*

A courtyard with a large amount of vegetation.*

Townhouse

A townhouse that reads as a single building.

A townhouse that is emphasized as separate homes.

A townhouse with a projecting central unit that helps to break up the mass of this large building.

A townhouse that could be easily integrated into a single-family neighborhood.*

A row of townhouses with clearly defined separation between units.*z

A large townhouse with a recessed facade to break up the massing of the building.*

Live/Work

A row of live/work units adjacent to a commercial block building.*

An example of how a historic home may become a live/work.*

A modern example of a live/work building.*

A row of live/work units that provide a commercial center as well as housing.*

A newly built example of a live/work building.*

A row of live/work units can serve as a commercial destination.*

*Example from outside of Flagstaff

Courtyard Apartment

A courtyard apartment that consists of multiple buildings on a single lot

An apartment with a courtyard full of lush vegetation.*

A courtyard with communal seating for residents and guests. *

A courtyard with landscaping.*

A courtyard with communal seating for residents and guests.*

An apartment with a large open courtyard.*

Commercial Block

A large commercial block building in downtown Flagstaff.

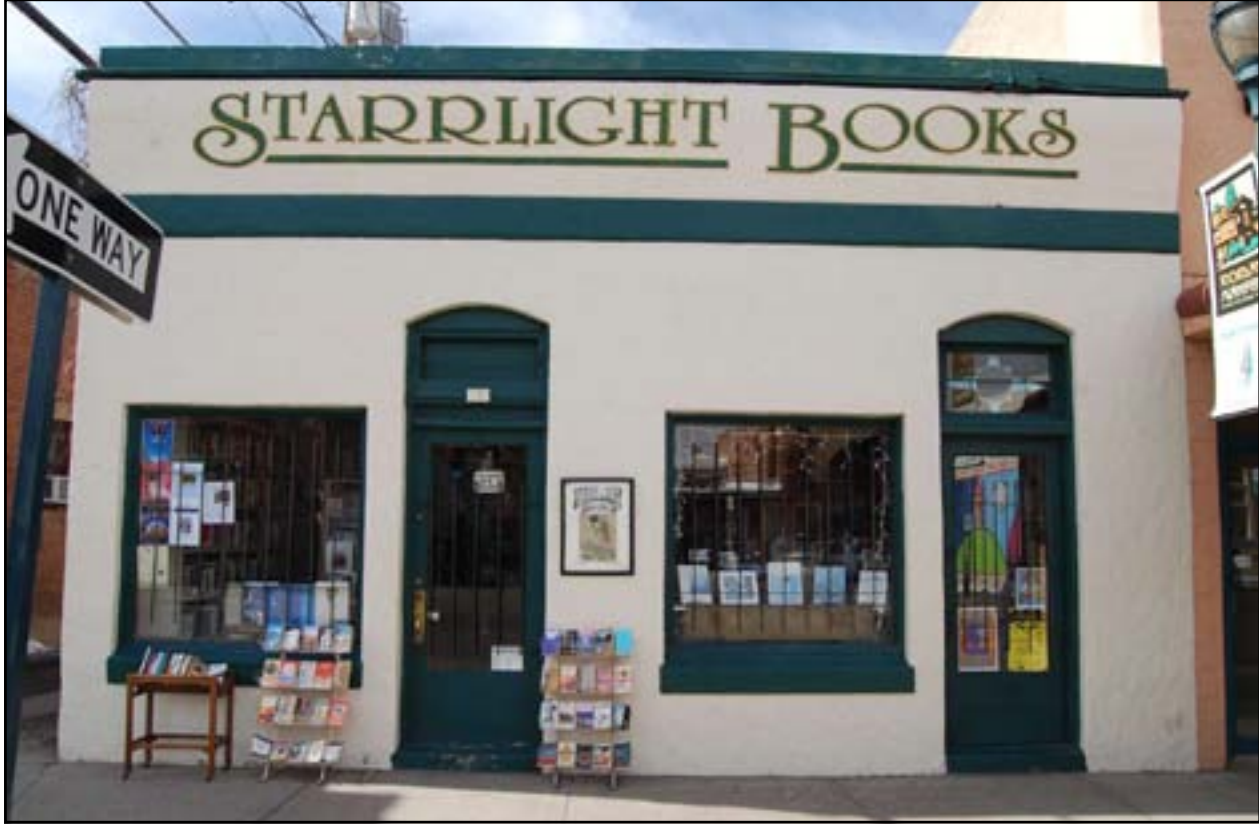

An iconic example of a large corner lot commercial block.

A large commercial block building in downtown Flagstaff.

A commercial block with multiple occupants.

A small commercial block in downtown Flagstaff.

A small commercial block in a residential neighborhood.